Prague, Aug. 29.—An afternoon paper have forbidden the wearing of white caps in the city. The round white cap is considered a Russian designation and has of late been quite popular in Bohemia as showing friendship with Russia, and defensiveness against the number of Russian persons visited the Prague exhibition a few days ago, wearing the white cap and refused to remove them when requested. The police did not attempt to interfere, but when they did, they caused a riot. When the Russian visitors, the Austrians, and the French were asked to leave the city, they refused to do so, and the police arrested them. They were then sent to the police station, where they were held until they were released.

THE DYING PRINCE.

Terrible Condition of Mecklenburg's Proud Ruler.

PARALYZED AND CLINGING TO LIFE IN INTENSE PAIN.

The Question of Selecting a Regent One of Germany's Serious Problems—Bismarck to Further Feel the Displeasure of the Kaiser—Wearing of White Caps Forbidden in Prague.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—One of the most serious problems in Germany, according to Berlin dispatch, is the condition of the Grand Duke Mecklenburg-Schwerin. This prince, although but 20 years of age is little more than an animated corpse. His lower limbs are paralyzed, and the upper part of his body is also in some degree affected. He has been thought to be dying, but he lives on, enduring great pain, and utterly useless as a ruler over one of the most important principalities in Germany. He is the proudest of German sovereigns, claiming a descent that makes the Hohenzollerns parvenus by comparison, and calls himself Prince of the Wends. Being married to a Princess of Russia, he has always been more Russian than German in his sympathies. It is now seriously proposed to appoint a regent of the Grand Dukedom, but no one has dared to suggest the master to the Duke. His son and heir is but 5 years old. The Duke's brother, Paul Frederick, has been spoken of as regent, but is said to be objectionable to the Czar, who, on the ground of relationship, is taking great interest in the matter. Much anxiety prevails in Mecklenburg, and great interest is felt throughout Germany, as both Mecklenburg-Schwerin and Mecklenburg-Stern are extremely particular in their relations to the federal government.

Official information has been received by the Halifax Board of Trade that the Spanish Government has admitted the conclusion of a peace with the British Government, that pending the expiring of the treaty of 1856 in July, 1892, the products of Canada will be admitted into Cuba and Porto Rico upon the same terms as imports from the United States. In other words, there will be a state of reciprocity with the United States and the Spanish West Indies goes into effect on Monday, the Americans will not derive any special advantage therefrom for the sending on men, money, and supplies, which period an American import will be admitted into the Spanish West Indies duty free.

STORMS.

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, Aug. 29.—A special cablegram from Bermuda says that a terrific storm raged there yesterday, leveling stone walls, uprooting trees and destroying telegraph wires. It was the greatest storm since 1880.

THE UNION PACIFIC.

Control of the Road Placed in the Hands of Drexel, Morgan & Co.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 29.—A morning paper here prints the following: It is generally understood that Jay Gould has virtually disengaged control of the Union Pacific Railway and that a majority of the stocks and bonds of the company has been placed in the hands of the banking firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co. S. Pierpont Morgan of that firm is to be the leading spirit in the management of that road. George S. Avery, president of the Union Pacific, says it is certain he is about to resign his position and S. S. Spofford former Vice-President of the B. & A. Spofford and at present in charge of Drexel, Morgan & Co.'s railway affairs, is mentioned as Mr.
Dill's successor. The management of the company is to undergo a complete change.
Spofford, formerly receiver of the Kansas Pacific, has been engaged to manage the General Manager of the Denver & Rio Grande, is to succeed S. H. Clark as General Manager of the Union Pacific.

The general opinion is that Drexel, Morgan & Co. will be the new controllers of the Union Pacific.

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 29.—The boldest robber of grain ever known in this section is reported from Kingman, Okla. The robber, a man of the northwestern part of the country, had rented a piece of wheat land close to Norwich. After cutting and stacking his crop he went home. The rented land is a long distance from his own home.
He was unknown to the neighborhood of Norwich, so that when a stranger presented himself in the evening before the murder, the little boys were aroused by the tumult and saw the robber leaving the smoke-house.
He told them to tell the neighbors that their neighbor had been killed. The boy who told the news ran to the station, and the train was stopped to take him to the police station.
The boy was taken to the police station and was found dead.

THE TRIAL OF THOMAS J. RIDER FOR THE KILL-ING OF HIS WIFE.

JACKSON, Mo., Aug. 29.—The testimony in the trial of Thomas J. Rider for the killing of his wife was heard yesterday. The jury reached the case at 5 o'clock last evening, and the case reached the jury at 10 o'clock last night, the children of his first wife and the children of the second could hardly gratify him. The fact that a man, verily only in military science was named for the coveted distinction is said to be due to the Kaiser's desire to foster a spirit of emulation among his commanding officers, and has caused no little ill-feeling in art and literary circles in Berlin.

THE NICARAGUA REVOLT.

PRESIDENT SACABA EXPLAINS THE RECENT ON-SETTER OF EXPULSION.

GRANADA, Vt., GALVESTON, Tex., Aug. 29.— President Sacaba issued a proclamation yesterday giving his reasons for expelling General Francisco Chamorro, President Gen. Joaquin Zavala, Don Anselmo Rivas, editor and proprietor of the "Diario Nicaraguense," the leading newspaper of Nicaragua; Don Enrique M. Lopez, Minister of Foreign Affairs; and Don J. Rodriguez, formerly attached to the Nicaraguan Legation at Washington, who are accused of being the ring-leaders in the riot which took place last Sunday, in which the Chief of Police was killed. The President said that the cause of the riot was the killing of the Chief of Police.

The general opinion is that Drexel, Morgan & Co. will be the new controllers of the Union Pacific.

and wounded. The country for miles around is filled with men, many of them wounded.

THE CITY FALLS.

An attack on the city was more seriously expected than the one which would probably have resulted from the victorious army entering the city heated with the fire of battle. The General Assembly has given its vote to General Canto with a proposition to surrender the city. It was accepted and Senator Don L. Williams, who refused a seat on the government's side, who refused a seat conduct from Balmaeda, and he has the commandment of the revolution directing the conduct of affairs for those in the South were present. General Canto is the head of the city and act as permanent until such time as permanent arrangements can be made. The commanding general there has been a general fight of the Government officials here. Senator Williams, Senator Williams and General Canto as soon as he had heard of the landing at Quinto Bay, and he has been with him ever since.

The forces began to enter the capital from the hills to the southeast. Gen. Canto with his chief of staff, Col. Fuentes, and Major General Walker, Martinez, were at the head of the troops. As the insurgent troops flushed with victory, the people were greeted with wild enthusiasm. The people were wild with excitement and the streets resounded with the shout of "Viva Chile! Viva Chile!"

Shortly after the entry of the forces of General Canto, the crew of the torpedo boat Almirante Lynch, which was lying at the Fiscal Mole, was summoned to render aid to the rebels. Guards were stationed in the street to see that the crowds of distinguished persons in the same place did not make trouble. The city is as quiet as could be expected under the circumstances and no trouble is expected. The whereabouts of President Balmaeda are unknown. The insurgent leaders are exceedingly anxious in finding him the chances are that he will go hard with him. The general belief here is that he will be captured and the country, perhaps overland to Buenos Ayres.

The Government is absolute and complete. There is no possibility of a reorganization, and if Balmaeda does not succeed in making a safe escape there must be a general massacre which will open the chances that he will be captured and shot.

President-elect Vicuna took the alarm early and went aboard the German flagship and asked protection of the Admiral who was very kind to him. Senator Vicuna sent a communication to Admiral Brown and the commanding officer of the naval force in the harbor, asking them to send men ashore and protect their citizens as the probabilities were that they might be attacked by the crew of the British jackets and marines from the San Francisco were ordered ashore by Admiral Brown and took up position on the beach to repel the assault. The other naval officers followed suit, and soon there were enough foreign men-of-war ashore to protect the city against any possible outbreak.

BALMAEDA'S FATE.

HE WILL BE A WANDERER IN FOREIGN LANDS AFTER SANTIAGO FALLS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—Mr. Julio Ponce Montt, the principal Congressman, was brimming with excitement and exultation when seen by a reporter to-day and was willing to talk freely.

"What will the Congressional Government do now? It seems now that it has defeated him?" he was asked.

"Let him go," replied Mr. Foster.

"What! you will not shoot or execute him?"

"The worst punishment that can be given him will be to make him an outcast, an exile, a wanderer on the face of the earth, branded like Cain. Balmaeda is an intensely proud man. He believes he is destined to conduct a Government that any one else. He wanted to prove that and has failed. We know all this and we know how to punish him. All those who have been leading him will wait for him again; so shall we."

ELICTED.

"Perhaps not by the Government, but most certainly by his own act. I know the man, and I know he cannot live in Chile again."

"Do you think he is in the fall of the Patriotic party?"

"Not exactly just at this time, because he will retreat to the capital, Santiago. But we have him like a rat in a trap. We will march on Santiago, but will not attack it. You see, the Congress is composed of the property there, and they will not storm the town. They will take it in the end peacefully, because Balmaeda cannot hold it. The people will rise up and overthrow him."

"I am sorry he has now got control of the whole sea coast, and will have the customs receipts which have been Balmaeda's main source of revenue. Without this income he cannot carry on the war. His paper money is worth nothing. Still he may hold out two or three weeks."

"We shall be in no hurry to take Santiago. It will take time. We will move the seat of government from Santiago to Valparaiso and elect for Representative in the Senate holding over, restore the old judges, and as quietly as possible get things running again. They were before Balmaeda, may, and will be again, to try to enlist support from some other country, but that will not avail him. We are the people, and he is an overthrown dictator. How can he get out of Santiago? I can't see. He can get to the coast, for the benefit of our army and navy officers.

LESSONS IN WAR.

WHAT AMERICANS ARE LEARNING FROM THE OPERATIONS IN CHILI.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—All army and navy officers are taking the keenest interest in this Chilean war, and every feature of it will be subject of professional study.

It is the most valuable object lesson of the war, and the order of battle, the tactics, the strategy, the morale of the combatants, the quiet prevailing throughout Valparaiso has been learned by all the students of the art of war.

The Chileans, however, have decided that there is no need for any intervention on the part of the assembled fleet to protect the foreign interests.

The Chileans, this morning elicited the sole response that the Minister was "not at home" and there was no one in the house to represent him.

NOTABLE OF THE CHILEAN STRUGGLE IS RECEIVED ABOARD.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Official dispatches received in Berlin and Paris confirm the announcement that the city of Valparaiso has been captured by the Congressional party.

"What will the Congressional Government do now? It seems now that it has defeated him?" he was asked.

"Let him go," replied Mr. Foster.

"What! you will not shoot or execute him?"

"The worst punishment that can be given him will be to make him an outcast, an exile, a wanderer on the face of the earth, branded like Cain. Balmaeda is an intensely proud man. AMONG THE BROKERS.

Elizabeth—Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained.

There was no activity on the Mining Exchange outside of Elizabeth and prices were generally unchanged.

There was a sharp demand for Elizabeth and the stock advanced in price. The market opened at $2.85 bid, but no stock was obtainable at this figure, the lowest bids being $2.60, buyers having figures to $2.75.

The stock then rose to $2.50, and at that quotation 500 shares were offered. The market closed at $2.475.

The brokers say that the strike is of a different character from that of its numerous predecessors, but that it will not last.

News from the Smelt Hopes is to the effect that the strike will last until November. I don't know whether this Government will continue to recognize Balmaeda or not.

"I should think our victory would entitle us to recognition as belligerents, and give us the right to be heard on all questions."

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

THE BALMAEDA GOVERNMENT STILL RECOGNIZED AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—The unexpected turn in affairs in Chile was the subject of particular interest at the State and Navy Departments to-day. Since the arrival of Consul McCreary's cablegram last night announcing the capture of Valparaiso by the Congressional forces no further official news has been received from the country. The diplomatic aspect of the situation has been changed by yesterday's events. As long as Balmaeda remains in possession of Santiago, the capital of Chile, the Congressional party shall set up a de facto government which our Minister reports is really the Government of the country. The Department of State has had full consultation with the Chilean party and must continue to recognize Balmaeda as President and Senor Lacano as Minister of Chile.

Admiral Brown's failure to report to-day to the date of his fact that he is believed to be in the service of the vessels and seamen in his squadron so as to insure American property against damage and American residents of the surrendered city against violence. Then he delayed his report until events shall have so shaped themselves as to enable him to state the conclusion of the movements of occupation, and stated further that he requires instruction from the Navy Department relative to his future course.

Departmental officers have not yet recovered from the surprise at their sudden capture

CLEVER SWINDLER.

How He Fooled a Grain Firm and a Livery Stable Keeper.

Justice Miehle has decided a case to-day in which the evidence showed that a very shrewd swindler had set up a leading grain firm and a well-known livery stable keeper at war with each other.

It is the most valuable object lesson of the war, and the order of battle, the tactics, the morale of the combatants, the quiet prevailing throughout Valparaiso has been learned by all the students of the art of war.

The Chileans, however, have decided that there is no need for any intervention on the part of the assembled fleet to protect the foreign interests.

GALA PLATFORM ADOPTED WITH THE LOAN PLANK OUT.

The Old President Scored a Decisive Victory To-Day—How the Members Throughout the State Stand on the Question at Issue—Yesterday's Exciting Debate on the Convention Floor.

WARENSBURG, Mo., Aug. 29.—The sub-treasury and land loan schemes were to-day rejected by the Missouri Alliance convention by a vote of 80 to 49. This is a victory for U. S. Hall and his followers.

The present appears to be an opportunity for a renewal by Minister Egan and the other foreign ministers of the tender of their good offices, and the anti-slavery men are evidently in agreement on this point.

of the "Zoo" and the band.

The description of his cause by the Freeman's Journal reduces Mr. PARNELL'S political support to that of his mouth organ.

The injury to wool wrought by the Mc-Kinley tariff is making it difficult matter for the bell-wether Republicans to keep the Ohio sheep in line.

In denouncing gambling and promising to aid any efforts aiming at its extinction does Mr. GLADSTONE mean that he will aid in the extinction of royalty?

"THINGS may be too cheap," says the President. But they are invariably too cheap when their prices are enhanced through special governmental favor.

Mr. MCKINLEY deprecates the coinage of what he calls an 80-cent dollar. As he voted for a bill in the last Congress which provides for the coinage of such a dollar his party loyalty may justly be called in question.

"MORTGAGES are not always an evidence of poverty; they are much often the best evidence of prosperity," remarks Mr. MCKINLEY. Certainly, the prosperity of the men who hold the mortgages, and they are the men Mr. MCKINLEY is working for.

The majority and minority reports of the Committee on Resolutions presented to the delegates of the Alliance Convention the question whether they shall become the parasites of paternal Government or remain independent and patriotic American citizens.

A DOLLAR worth 100 cents is a good thing, but so is a yard of all-wool stuff which is all wool. Will Mr. MCKINLEY frankly tell the Ohio wool-growers the percentage of depreciation suffered by Ohio wool under the influence of the protection given to shoddy by his little law?

All the prosperity in the country this year is due to the McKinley law, why do the McKinleyites want to drop that measure as an issue and talk something else? If McKinley and prosperity are related as cause and effect, its advocates ought not to be ashamed of it as they seem to be.

THE Republicans cannot in justice oppose the demands of the Sub-Treasury cranks. They give bounties to the sugar men, subsidies to ship-owners and a protective tariff to the manufacturers. Under this paternal policy the farmers are fairly entitled to some of the Government pie.

It is said with some truth that had the bosses who are now booming Mr. BLAINE for the Presidency been on his side in 1876 or 1880 he would have been nominated and elected too. But no harsher thing could be said of a candidate than that his success depends upon the support of defaulters and bribe.

THE Street Commissioner has discovered that the cess-pools of the Lowell district can be drained into the river below the water-works at slight expense, and thus one of the difficulties in dealing with nuances there has been practically solved.

This discovery might have been made long ago, but it is highly probable that if the POST-DISPATCH had not inaugurated the anti-nuisance crusade citizens would still be suffering without hope of relief.

OUR UNLICENSED SALOON SYSTEM.
When an unlicensed saloon is opened and run with impunity in violation of law and in spite of remonstrances from a majority of the residents and property holders of the block, all the POST-DISPATCH can do for the latter is by publishing their complaints and helping them to direct pub-attention to the systematic encouragement afforded to violators of the license law by officials whose sworn duty it is to enforce the law.

When a big brewery concludes to start a saloon in a block in spite of the remonstrances which prevent the Collector from granting a license, the saloon-keeper is told to go ahead without a license, but with every assurance that the law will not be enforced against him, pending the efforts of the brewery to secure a license for him by buying or leasing property and colonizing enough of its own tenants to outvote the remonstrants. In such a case, until the brewery abandons the fight for control of the block, its residents will clamor in vain for the enforcement of the laws. As in the case of the saloon-keeper who is permitted to retain his license for months in violation of law without paying for it, the brewery's "pull" is stronger than the law. If the police arrest the unlicensed saloon-keeper, they labor in vain also, as the Mayor grants a stay of execution, and nothing more is heard about fine or punishment after the brewery succeeds in this kind of robbery and that adopted by the treasury looters who are booming Mr.
HARRISON'S Secretary of State.

TIN PLATE AND SHEET IRON.

From the Philadelphia Record.
It had been deemed essential to establish the tin-plate industry in this country the honest way of going out it would be to let the people buy the sheet iron and steel from which it is made. This would have given manufacturers an immediate standing in the home and foreign markets by offering them the advantage of low-priced and free raw material. Instead of this obvious means of putting the tin-plate industry on its feet, the heavy tax on sheet iron and steel has been retained, and as a means of still further obstruction the McKinley act provides for a future tax on block tin, which is the only way to stop the tin business.

Charles L. Rowland of the firm of Adams & Rowland was called upon yesterday by a gentleman whose name is not given to him to remand the arrested collector of the Barge Office until he paid his bill of $17 to the Southern Hotel. He was more than half a mile away when he was called to a reporter that she had rowed him to land, and will figure as the star in a suit to test the law recently passed by the Legislature to protect hotel and boarding-house keepers.

The suit which has been brought by the Treasury Department against importers of foreign cheap labor will be prosecuted with apparent vigor until after the election, when they will be dropped. Mr. BLAINE need not fear that his tin workers from Wales will be rudely torn from him. They will not arrive until after the election.

IN HIS SCHEMES TO USE THE VILLAGE POST-MASTER AS COGS IN THE HARRISON MACHINE,

WANAMAKER PROPOSES TO ROB THE PEOPLE OF THE SERVICES OF MEN WHO ARE EXPECTED TO DEVOU THEIR TIME TO THE PUBLIC DUTIES.

Essentially there is no difference between this kind of robbery and that adopted by the treasury looters who are booming Mr.
HARRISON'S Secretary of State.

PROGRESS IN EDUCATION.

From the New York World.
President Harrison told his Bennington hearers that "there shall grow richer by contributions which other countries shall make as they take from our storehouses the food needed to sustain their people." This is contrary to the theory upon which the McKinley bill was constructed and defended last year before the people. This theory is that foreign commerce is an injury to a nation, and that American labor and capital are made poorer by exchanged products from other countries. The campaign of education is making progress.

LADY HARRINGTON IS THE BELOVED OF A
"PARTY" ON THE UPPER GALLERY THOUGH PRESSED TO DO SO.

The attentions she has received from the female prisoners and the kindness of the guards to their pretty and determined young wife have lightened the worry of her imprisonment. She was very cheerful towards her newspaper callers this morning, and though again requested to tell something of her adventurous career for the paper, she refused, saying, "I am not a member of any party."

Mrs. Kingsley returned the compliment but said she would not do so.

UNLICENSED SALOONS.

As you see to have the pull on most everything can you not help us out in our efforts to insist that Collector Ziegelnau do his duty?

ABOUT A MONTH AGO A SALOON WAS OPENED ON 3801 LEONARD AVENUE AND HAS BEEN OPENLY DEFYING THE LAW IN SELLING LIQUOR WITHOUT LICENSE SINCE. THE ATTENTION OF THE COLLECTOR AND POLICE HAS BEEN DRAWN TO THE MATTER, BUT THERE HAS BEEN NO ACTION TAKEN.

LAST NIGHT A SALOON WAS OPENED ON A SPOT OF LAND OWNED BY ALL THE RESIDENTS AND PROPERTY OWNERS ON THE BLOCK BUT THREE, SHOWING THAT THE PARTY CANNOT OBTAIN A LICENSE PRO-PERLY UNDER THE LAW, YET HE OPENLY BOASTS THAT THE PEOPLE HAVE HAD TIME TO MAKE A STAND.

IT IS THE SYNDICATE OF THE COLLECTOR TO PROSECUTE SUCH A MAN. IS HE IN THE "PUSH?"

ILLUMINATION TO-NIGHT.

The Olive Street Storekeepers Want More Arches.

To-night the illumination will be given a thorough test and lighted for the first time this season. All the arches are up and ready so that all that will be necessary is to test the burners and look for leaks in the gas pipes. This evening a little after dark the gas and electric current will be turned into the night and the overhanging arches will be illuminated the whole array set ablaze almost at once. The statue of liberty is almost ready to be put up and the Grant statue is finished. It will certainly present a beautiful sight on all sides.

The storekeepers along Olive street have united in signing a protest to the illumination committee on the treatment of the arches. They claim that they have been imposed upon and neglected by the committee and want to be relieved. One of the merchants on Olive street who has secured a number of signers to the protest, said that when the subscriptions were being taken that Olive street would be treated as well as the other streets. Now all we get is a few trees of lights on the lamp-posts, and only one arch way up Olive street is lighted. The arches on Twelfth street and Fourth street have all been lavishly adorned, and we are given practically no attention. The committee came around them and said that we would be treated as well as any, and that there would be no expense spared. We are not so lucky. With so many assurances given us we contributed liberally, expecting to get an adequate return. The result is that we will either be treated better or refuse to make the second and third year payments.

The protest will be duly submitted to those in charge of the fall festivities and efforts made to secure additional lights and arcs put on Olive street from the Exposition eastward.

All of the attractions at the theaters except the grand opening of the Grand with night's "Incor" at the Grand, "Our Strategists" at Havlin's, and the Nelson Combination at the Standard will be seen and heard for the last time this evening. The Minstrels, however, will give a final performance tomorrow night, as the Lyceum Theater Co. does not open until Friday night.

The Dickens Co. at the Grand suffered heavily through the Park Place disaster in the loss of all its printing. This was especially bad, as the company had been in session, but Manager Lederer made arrangements with a local printing house to supply the wants.

The attraction at Pope's next week will be the successful play, "A Better Man." It is to be the last success of the man who first produced last season. Among the notable scenes in the interior of the iron works is the one in which the young and romantic young actor, Walter H. Edwards, who is surrounded by a capable company, will sing a few songs, music and gesture specialties.

"The Devil's Mine" will follow "Our Stars," and "Hollie" and "Mabel" will be the Standard will have burlesque enter-tainment next week, to be given by the popular "Sister Girls."

The sale of seats opened yesterday for the engagement of the Paulout Co. in the Auditorium. The first performance in Chicago, Miss Emma White, the prima donna is said to be an exceptionally fine singer who has come to do opera to fill this engagement in comic operas.

The opening of the sale at the Olympic yesterday was a success, and the manager's Lyceum Theater Co. next week was attended with a fine demand. The program for the first varied, and will include, in addition to the plays previously seen here, the new ones which constituted the main feature of the company's tour at their home theater. Monday and Tuesday, the bill will be "The Idler," a play in the style of "Capt. Swift," C. Haddon Chambers, which ran at the Lyceum Theater for over four months, Wednesday matinee and night. "The Wife" will give two performances and Saturday matinee. "The Charity Ball" will be given on Sunday night, the bill will be Dixie Boucicault's "Street Comedy."

"Old Heads and Young Hearts." This was the most popular comedy review which is to be continued at the Lyceum Theater, and created a decided sensation. That it is the first time the play had ever been given in the country will correct costumes of the period in which it was written.

Produced a large fire in the Waters-Pierce Oil Co.'s works. The second and greatest stroke, shortly after 12 o'clock, in mid-afternoon saw smoke bursting from the roof of the engine house, which adjoins the refining department, where large quantities of oil were stored. The fire in the department succeeded in extinguishing the fire before it got beyond the engine house or caused any damage. The water used to fight the fire was started by a pump from a passing locomotive.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 29.—The Milwaukee Club has, to all appearance, besides assuming the franchise of the Cincinnati Club, assumed an indebtedness which makes them look rather blue all around for the management. The statement was made last night that the club was in debt to the extent of $10,000 and more, and that most of the players are to be paid $1,000 each. As far as is known, the Association did not pay for the Association franchise and it is said that half the sum is still due. What the exact complications are not positively known, but, in any event, the stockholders and directors had a lively and heated meeting at the club rooms in the Plankinton House last night. The heavier losses made the stock all around to raise amount money to carry the club through the season and bring it up even. The small holders kicked and refused to put up the amount of money on their holdings. This plan was adopted, making money available for the club to meet its obligations.

President Gillette has made a formal announcement of the deficit, but says that he proposes to see the thing through him self and keep the club going to the end of this season and the next. It was said early this evening that the club was in debt to the tune of $10,000 for the proportionate interest of the members.

Another meeting will be held this evening and the matter will be discussed further, and perhaps an arrangement arrived at.
